

Credit by Demonstrated Mastery is a new opportunity for North Carolina students to personalize and accelerate their learning. Students successfully completing the Credit by Demonstrated Mastery process earn course credit by demonstrating mastery of course material without satisfying traditional seat time requirements. Rutherford County Schools may award CDM credit based upon careful evaluation of evidence produced by individual students.

For more information about Credit by Demonstrated Mastery:

Visit the Rutherford County Schools Credit by Demonstrated Mastery site at <https://sites.google.com/a/rcsnc.org/cdm/?pli=1>.